

BX President's Award

The Builders Exchange is pleased to announce Adrienne Sraver, senior project manager with Hill International, as the 2022 recipient of the BX President's Award.

Initiated in 1979, this honor is given to an individual who has volunteered countless hours behind the scenes to develop Exchange programs and impact the industry. While the award is presented to just one person, it represents and salutes the thousands of BX members who have donated their time and talents to the BX through the years.

Sraver has been a member of the Exchange since 2012 and has since been an active volunteer for both the Education and Events departments. She is a graduate of the 2013 class of the BX Rising Leaders Institute. Sraver has served as an instructor for the Layman's Look at Construction and Project Management for Contractors courses and served as a volunteer on the BX Education Task Force. She also serves on the BX Craftsmanship Committee, participates in the BX Young Professionals Group and regularly attends the BX Golf Outing and Annual Meeting. In addition to her BX involvement, Sraver is an adjunct professor for The Ohio State University where she has taught both Renovation & Demolition and Introduction to Construction Management courses. She is the former chair of The Ohio State University Construction Systems Management Industry Advisory Council.

