

Sponsorship

Event Overview

Ascension Construction Solutions proudly presents its inaugural Women in Construction Week Celebration, taking place March 4th at the Brick Studio East Location. This event brings together 150 women professionals from across the construction industry to celebrate achievement, foster connection, and inspire the next generation of leaders.

Aligned with the national theme “Level Up, Build Strong,” our program’s theme, “Level Up: Building Her Path, Strengthening Our Industry”, highlights women’s career growth, leadership, and impact across all sectors of construction and the building industry.

Why Sponsor

By sponsoring this event, your organization will:

- Support the advancement of women in construction
- Gain visibility with a highly engaged professional audience
- Strengthen your brand as a champion of workforce development and diversity
- Build meaningful relationships with industry leaders and decision-makers
- Recognize industry trailblazers and rising talent.
